Pre-Conference Short Course – 23 November at Burswood

"Database Management for Successful Explorers"

This practical course will show participants how good data management practices and processes can assist with the discovery of ore bodies. Topics to be discussed include data quality, data tracking, recent advances in normalizing geochemical data, and domain mapping of geochemistry for surface and drill hole data. The course will also discuss how to structure database models to ensure that the collection and storage of data meets statutory requirements as outlined in JORC, SAMREC and Nat Inst 43-100 documents.

For further information about the course please contact:
Dr Joanna Pearson at Maxwell GeoServices
Ph: 08 9430 9634 Fax: 08 9430 9635
